

Second Madrid International Workshop on Operator Theory and Function Spaces
Madrid, January 23, 2019

Operator inequalities implying similarity to a contraction

Glenier Bello

In this talk we will introduce classes of Hilbert space operators that satisfy a positivity condition involving analytic functions. We will discuss some properties of these classes. Mainly, the operators of these classes are similar to contractions. We will mention briefly the famous Nagy-Foias model for contractions and how to define a model in the same spirit for the operators on the classes mentioned.

Department of Mathematics
Universidad Autónoma de Madrid and Instituto de Ciencias Matemáticas
`gl.bello@icmat.es`