

Research-Technician position in Mathematics at ICMAT-UAM

In the framework of PID2021-124195NB-C32, there is funding for a research technician position in mathematics. These are part-time jobs compatible with undertaking a master in mathematics. It consist in an small research project, possibly related with the TFM, related with the objectives of the gorup.

Length: One academic year.

Salary: The salary will be depend on the amount of hours.

Candidates and Selection: The candidates should have a degree on mathematics or physics. Strong background in analysis, differential geometry and partial differential equations will be highly considered.

Applications

A CV should be sent as well as a presentation letter indicating background and research interest and if posible a letter of recomendation. After preselection interviews will be conducted.

Deadline for applications: The official application will open sometime next fall but interested young researchers should send a letter of interest to daniel.faraco@uam.es

Daniel Faraco Hurtado

Principal Investigator of AGAPI PID2021-124195NB-C32